

Practitioners' Voices

- artists in community settings

A unique forum on practice for professional artists working in community.

What we do and why it matters.

A day of investigation and dialogue across artforms.

Tuesday 1st May 2012

Footscray Community Arts Centre

9am registration for a 9.30am start

Limited places / bookings essential $40 Full / $15 Conc

Further information and how to book www.castanet.net.au

4 workshops delivered by leading practitioners, Dave Kelman, Jude Anderson, Görkem Acaroğlu and Ian Pidd exploring:

- Reflective practice. Interrogating and understanding our practice at a deeper level.
- What makes it a profession? What makes it art? Probing process and aesthetic.
- What do you mean access? Are the arts really accessible to all community groups?
- When it all goes pear shaped! Stories of when projects don't go according to plan. And what is learnt.

With a special keynote address from Rimini Protokoll.

